INFORMATION ON SECURITY POLICIES, CRIME STATISTICS, EMERGENCY PROCEDURES AND REPORTING

A SAFE CAMPUS IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY

Report Crime Promptly!

FULLER'S security policies and procedures are aimed at your safety and welfare. You help maintain your own safety on campus by following all security policies, and by using common sense safety practices, such as walking in groups; reporting suspicious activities; not leaving books, computers, or backpacks unattended; etc. The following will provide you with an overview of security facts and crime statistics that will be helpful to you. Everyone on campus and each extension site should be safety conscious and follow security procedures. Remember: A Safe Campus is Everyone's Responsibility; Report all crimes promptly!

POST SECURITY AND CAMPUS SECURITY SERVICE

Post Security patrols the main and north campus, as well as outlying Fuller Housing, with a fully marked and outfitted patrol car. A uniformed officer will be stationed on campus between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The officer will answer any security calls, conduct visual inspections for trespassers and security discrepancies and patrol parking lots. Post will provide (8) hours of patrol services daily, seven days a week between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. All personnel are fully trained by local police academies, qualify for California Peace Officer status, carry valid CPR and First Aid Certificates, and are certified for fire arm use.

In addition, Fuller Campus Security Services offers personal assistance to students, faculty, administrators, and staff. Student personnel who rely on the entire Fuller community to inform them of any suspicious behavior, vagrancy, or vandalism operate the Service. Security are available to escort individuals to and from the Library, parking lots, classrooms, offices, and campus housing from dusk until fifteen minutes after the David Allan Hubbard Library closes, Monday through Saturday. Security personnel are identifiable by their red shirts/jackets. They carry flashlights, mobiletransmitters, an official identification card, and barcode scanners. The barcode scanners are used to maintain a database of security lockup rounds and document security incidents.

ENFORCEMENT AND ARREST AUTHORITY OF POST SECURITY AND CAMPUS SECURITY SERVICE

Post Security and Campus Security Service have the authority to apprehend and detain anyone involved in illegal acts on campus and immediately adjacent to the campus including Fuller housing.

WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

Post Security and Campus Security Services have a working relationship with the Pasadena Police Department and report all criminal acts to that department. Both agencies also work cooperatively with other state and federal law enforcement agencies.

CRIME REPORTING POLICY, PROCEDURES, AND REPOSES

When a crime occurs students and /or employees should immediately report it to Post Security or Campus Security Service. For all other eligible locations, contact the specific site. See above for phone numbers.

TO REPORT A CRIME IN PROGRESS

To report an emergency from campus, dial 9-911. State "This is an emergency."

Give the dispatcher:

The nature of the emergency

Your name

The phone number from which you are calling

Your location

Do not hang up until you are sure no further information is required, unless there is an immediate threat to your safety.

After calling 9.911 (or 911), notify Campus Security at 5444.

Watch for the arrival of emergency personnel and assist in directing them to the appropriate location.

TO REPORT A CRIME WHICH HAS OCCURRED

Pasadena: during campus hours (8 am – 5 pm) call Campus Security at 5444.

Give security:

The nature of the crime

Your name

The phone number from which you are calling

Your location

Additional locations: contact your police department.

Fuller will publish and distribute this annual security report to all current students and employees. In addition, all applicants for admission or employment are provided upon request, a full copy of this report. This annual security report is also available on the World Wide Web from Fuller's Financial Aid Page at www.fuller.edu/finaid.

Fuller will provide timely warnings to the campus community of serious crimes (murder, forcible and nonforcible sex offenses, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, and motor vehicle theft) reported to campus security or local law enforcement, which may be considered a threat to other students and employees.

All crime and incident reports documented through the Campus Security Office and Post Security will be distributed on a monthly basis to the following departments on the Pasadena campus: Admissions, Auxiliary Services, Building Services, Development, General Counsel, Housing, Human Resources, International Services Office, Library, Marriage and Family, Office of Finance and Accounting, Provost, Publications, Registrar, Residential Community, Student Affairs, Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs, and the Schools of Theology, Psychology, and Intercultural Studies.

Post Security and Campus Security Service report major offenses at the Pasadena campus, such as rape, forcible and nonforcible sex offenses, murder, aggravated assault, robbery, and auto theft to the police. The Seminary will cooperate fully with law enforcement agencies in the enforcement of criminal laws on campus.

These statistics reflect crimes that occurred on the main Pasadena campus and all additional eligible locations.

FIRE SAFETY REPORT FOR ON-CAMPUS HOUSING

Listed below is the fire safety report for the last three years:

Year	Address of fire	Cause of fire	Number of injuries related to the fire resulting in treatment at a medical facility	Number of deaths related to the fire	Value of property damage caused by the fire
2010	No occurrences
2009	1436 E. Orange Grove Blvd, Pasadena, CA 91104	Fire in trash dumpster caused by tenant disposing of used charcoal grill in dumpster.	None	None	$0
2009	262 N. Los Robles Pasadena, CA 91101	Tenant left apartment while cooking something on the stove	None	None	$0
2008	N/A

There are currently four housing units that are completely alarmed (monitored) and have fire sprinklers (261, 271, 281, 291 North Madison Ave, Pasadena, CA 91101). The complex located at 262 N. Los Robles, Pasadena, CA 91101 has fire sprinklers in below grade parking facilities (two levels). This system is monitored for water flow and for pull stations. All units in Fuller Housing have smoke alarms per the Pasadena and California fire codes. All housing complexes have fire extinguishers per Pasadena and California fire codes.

There are currently no mandatory fire drills for on-campus housing. Evacuation paths are posted at all elevators in multi-story buildings with elevators. All other buildings have open balconies with obvious fire exits. Fire safety education is provided to Community Coordinators each year by the Pasadena Fire Department. An annual Safety and Security Night is provided for residents each fall quarter. Information provided at this event includes fire preparedness, orientation to fire extinguishers and gas shutoff procedures. There are no restrictions on portable electrical appliances or open flames for on-campus housing. Smoking is prohibited in all housing units.

The seminary currently has no plans for improving fire safety other than replacement of older buildings.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

It is crucial that emergency situations involving the Fuller community be reported in an accurate and timely manner to both emergency responders and members of the Fuller community. During an emergency, please keep phone lines clear except when necessary to report serious hazards or injuries.

REPORTING AN EMERGENCY

If you are at Fuller when an emergency occurs, call 911 (9-911 from a campus phone). Notify the Security Office at (626) 584-5450 immediately after you have called 911, which will then contact the necessary members of the Fuller Emergency Management Team.

DETERMINING AN EMERGENCY

When Fuller's Emergency Management Team is made aware of a significant emergency or danger to the Fuller community, notification will immediately be sent out. If the reported emergency is either not immediately identifiable as significant or not readily confirmed, the Emergency Management Team will first confirm the nature and details of the event before notifying the Fuller community.

Fuller's Emergency Management Team will notify all members of the Fuller community that could be effected by the emergency. If, for example, an emergency is happening near the Seattle campus, the situation may or may not require notifying students and employees at other campuses as well. The Emergency Management Team will determine the scope of the emergency before sending out notification.

HOW THE FULLER COMMUNITY RECEIVES EMERGENCY INFORMATION

In appropriate circumstances, faculty, staff, and students will receive information sent directly to them via Everbridge Aware, e-mail, or communication from coworkers, supervisors, or Emergency Management Team members.

Everbridge Aware

The Everbridge Aware emergency communication system allows Fuller to send messages directly to community members through e-mail, mobile phone, office phone, home telephone, and SMS/text message. Students provide this information through the "Personal Information" section of Fuller's student portal, Portico, which feeds into Banner. Employees provide this information through ADP Employee Self Service. Everbridge Aware is only used for testing and emergency communications.

Emergency communication will have as much pertinent information as is known at the time and as much as can be communicated to a particular device (some, like SMS, are limited by character length). Because priority is given to notifying the Fuller community as quickly as possible, subsequent communication will have additional information beyond the initial contact.

Specific instructions for updating personal contact information for Everbridge Aware are available at <http://www.fuller.edu/emergency>. (Login in to <http://portico.fuller.edu>, Click on "Personal Information" under the "My Quick Links", Click "Update Address(es) and Phone(s)")

Emergency Information Web page

Fuller's emergency information Web page is located at <http://www.fuller.edu/emergency>. This webpage functions as an informational blog for Fuller during emergencies. Emergency Management Team posts information and decisions affecting Fuller's community on this site in real time.

Emergency Phone Number

A recorded message will also be available in the case of an emergency at 626.584.5606. This phone number is dedicated exclusively to emergency information for Pasadena employees and will include information regarding when employees are to return to work in the event the seminary has closed.

Fuller will, without delay, initiate the notification system with necessary information in the event of significant emergency, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of the Emergency Management Team, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

INFORMATION DISSEMINATION PROCEDURE TO THE LARGER COMMUNITY

Immediately following a disaster, Fuller Seminary will be in contact with appropriate persons and offices in the City of Pasadena to seek help as needed, and to make a situation report regarding any deaths or injuries to persons; the level and extent of destruction or major damages to buildings and other structures; and existing and potential problems with utilities. A primary and initial contact at this point will be the City of Pasadena's Emergency Management Coordinator, in the City of Pasadena's Fire Department. Additional contacts may be appropriate with other City offices, including the Police Department.

Secondly, we will communicate with our institutional neighbors to help coordinate a neighborhood response. This will be especially important if the level of disaster were to overwhelm the response capacities of our City's services-- including fire and police departments, hospitals, and other organizations. Anticipating the possibility of such a situation, our neighborhood's major institutions are coordinated to provide emergency services and response assistance, both for our own staffs as well as neighborhood residents who may come to our various campuses and offices for assistance.

Third, we will also provide, in quick fashion, accurate information and communication with the media. Further, we will closely monitor all communications to ensure the accuracy of information presented to the public as well as our Fuller community. Also, through the Fuller emergency webpage (<http://www.fuller.edu/emergency>) we will provide rapid and frequently updated disaster situation reports and updates, which will be immediately available to the public and to our Fuller community including students, staff, faculty, alumni/ae, and friends.

Recognizing that rapid changes are endemic to disaster situations, we will be in ongoing communication with the City, our neighboring institutions, the media, the public, and the Fuller community to keep them accurately informed of activities, progress, and needs.

Members of Fuller's Emergency Management Team

Fred Messick, Associate Vice President for Public Affairs

Jeanne Handojo, Director of Auxiliary Services

Wendy Wakeman, Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs

Communicating Information to the Public

When it is required for a period of time for the seminary to close its operations in whole, or in part, to ensure the safety of its employees, employees will be notified by management as soon as possible. Each supervisor is responsible to notify each employee he or she supervises. (Each supervisor should have available outside of the office the home phone numbers of each individual he or she will need to contact.) In the event that the Pasadena campus must close, a recorded message will be provided on the main switchboard line 626.584.5200, to notify students, employees, and the general public of the closure.

Testing and Announcing Everbridge Aware

The Everbridge Aware system is tested each quarter on the Monday of week two. This ensures all students (even those who registered late) are included in that quarter's test. The test goes to all methods of communication that Fuller has on record for each student in Banner and for each employee in Employee Self Service. These tests are announced in advance on Fuller's student portal. The announcement includes links to Fuller's emergency response and evacuation procedures. These tests are documented by the HR office and include a description of the exercise, date, time, and whether the test was announced.

MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICY AND PROCEDURES

As a graduate level institution, the seminary recognizes that its adult students may or may not choose to live in seminary owned housing, including off-campus apartment units leased by the seminary for student residents. This policy primarily addresses the seminary's response to a concern about a student residing in seminary housing who, based on the facts and circumstances known at the time to seminary officials, is presumed to be missing.

For purposes of this policy, a student residing in seminary housing will be considered missing if a roommate, classmate, faculty member, friend, family member, or other campus person has not seen or heard from the person in a reasonable amount of time. Typically, a reasonable amount of time is 24 hours, but this may vary with the time of day and information available regarding the missing person's daily schedule, habits, and reliability. An individual will also be considered missing immediately by the seminary if their absence has occurred under circumstances that are suspicious or cause concern for his or her safety.

For purposes of this policy, a student residing in seminary housing may be considered to be a "missing student" if the person's absence is contrary to his or her usual pattern of behavior and/or unusual circumstances may have caused the absence. Such circumstances could include, but are not limited to, a report or suspicion that the missing person may be the victim of foul play, has expressed suicidal thoughts, is drug dependent, is in a life-threatening situation, or has been with persons who may endanger his or her welfare.

To Report a Missing Student

Any member of the Seminary community who has reason to believe that a student residing in Fuller housing has been missing for an unreasonable amount of time (usually at least 24 hours) should immediately contact Fuller Campus Security Services 626.584.5444. If the call is made during a time that the campus Security Office is closed, the call will automatically be forwarded to Post Security, which is open 24/7.

(Any member of the Seminary community who has reason to believe that a student NOT residing in Fuller housing has been missing should immediately and directly contact the local law enforcement agency serving the student's area of residence.)

Procedures the Seminary Will Follow Upon Receipt of a Missing Student Report

1. The receiving security office will notify the Director of Auxiliary Services of the missing student report. The security office in collaboration with the Director of Auxiliary Services and with the seminary's Student Emergency Committee, chaired by the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Affairs, will make a determination as to whether or not the student residing in seminary housing is missing. This determination may involve entering the student's residence, as well as contacting known friends, classmates, and professors, for any information as to the student's whereabouts.
2. Within 24 hours of determining that a student who resides in seminary housing is a missing student:
  - a. The Student Development Director (or designee) shall notify the student's designated emergency contact person, if there is one that the student is missing.
  - b. The Director of Auxiliary Services (or designee) shall notify local law enforcement that the student is missing, regardless of whether the student has identified a contact person.
3. The seminary will cooperate with and render requested assistance in the course of any investigation of a missing student by any law enforcement agency. This may include assisting with access to a missing student's emails.

Notification to Students of this Policy

Federal law requires the seminary as a student housing provider to establish a missing student notification policy.

All seminary students, regardless of where they live, are requested at the time of initial registration to voluntarily provide the seminary with the name of one or more emergency contact persons through Portico. Every enrolled student (resident of seminary housing and non-resident) has his or her own account and may enter or change, through the personal information menu in Portico, one or more designated contact persons at any time by updating their emergency contact information through Portico. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that the contact information is up to date and accurate.

In addition, students residing in seminary housing will also be informed of the following

1. The emergency contact person identified in Portico by the student as first in priority will be the individual notified by the seminary in the event the student is missing.
  2. The emergency contact information provided by the student through Portico is designated as confidential. Only authorized administrators and law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation will have access to this information, and it will only be used in emergency situations involving the student, including a missing person situation.

ACCESS TO CAMPUS

Any outside groups must submit proper application materials to the vice president of finance and building services for review. On-campus groups and cosponsored requests must also have review and approval by the vice president of finance. Security considerations are reviewed prior to the approval of any request. Seminary policy prescribes that all persons must report any occupancy in administrative buildings after 11 p.m. to the Campus Security office. All employees and faculty when on campus must show identification at any time upon request of Post Security or Campus Security Services.

Visitors, as a general rule, are not authorized in buildings after normal business hours unless faculty, employees or a seminary official escorts them. Students are admitted into buildings after normal business hours only when there is an authorized access list from the department head or his/her designee on file with Campus Security Services.

Unauthorized access to campus facilities is a violation of California Penal Code 626.6 (Committing act, or entry upon campus or facility to commit act, likely to interfere with peaceful activities; direction to leave; refusal to leave or reentry; punishment).

ACCESS TO CAMPUS RESIDENCES

Access to campus housing complexes is restricted to student residents, their friends and families. Many complexes have access limited by physical means, i.e.; gates, fencing, and in some units, gate entry systems. Community coordinators are instructed and encouraged to organize a community watch program for their complex.

Student residents are instructed not to invite street people into the complex or their apartment, to keep their apartments and valuables locked and secured, and are encouraged to notify the Post Security patrol of any suspicious individual(s) or activity in their apartment complex.

Campus security escorts are available to accompany students to and from campus after dark.

FULLER HOUSING STUDENT RESIDENCE

Post Security Patrol:

Post Security provides evening patrols, security gate lockups, and responds to emergency calls involving Fuller Housing complexes.

Student Responsibility:

Residents are responsible for the reporting of criminal offenses occurring in their campus-housing complex. Crimes are to be reported to organization/individual in the order listed:

- Pasadena Police Department
- Post Security/Campus Security Department
- Community Coordinator (located at each housing complex)
- Director of Community Life Program

In the absence of the community coordinator/director of community life, residents should report the criminal activity to the Housing Office or Auxiliary Services.

Students receive information at the time of entry to student housing on procedures to follow in reporting a crime or other suspicious activity that occurs in their apartment complex. This includes reporting the incident to the Pasadena Police Department and the Campus Security, how and when to report criminal activity, avoiding becoming a victim of crime, and a list of agencies to call for assistance or counseling.

SECURITY CONSIDERATIONS USED IN MAINTENANCE

All Building Service Personnel are uniformed and have a written work authorization before entering any residence.

HOW YOU CAN LEARN ABOUT CAMPUS SAFETY AND SECURITY

The Student Handbook, available from the Student tab on Portico, includes official statements of Fuller, and information regarding campus security, student resources, campus services, etc. Students who reside in Fuller housing also receive additional security information, as described in the Tenant Handbook.

Additional educational programs and counseling are available through the School of Psychology at 180 North Oakland. Campus Security also sponsors related services.

CRIME PREVENTION AND SAFETY PROGRAMS

Programs offered in conjunction with the Pasadena Police Department include:

Home Security:

This program is part of the Neighborhood Watch Home Presentation Series; it provides practical information about making a home a secure, unattractive target for burglars. It also demonstrates how neighbors can help each other and work with the Police Department to fight crime.

Personal Safety:

A crime prevention specialist from the Pasadena Police Department discusses and answers questions on personal safety. Topics include: How to avoid threatening situations and what to do when you find yourself in a potentially hazardous situation.

Sexual Offense Prevention:

Information in ways that can assist in avoiding a potential rape or other sexual assault. Women's self defense programs, including presentations and training programs on sexual assault, sexual harassment, sexual abuse, and date/acquaintance rape, are offered through the Pasadena YWCA.

Drug Awareness:

How to recognize drug-dealing activity in your neighborhood. If your neighborhood is being taken over by drug dealers, how to reclaim it by knowing the facts about drug use and abuse.

Gangs:

This presentation will provide useful information on how to recognize gang members by their dress, language and graffiti. Included will be a video that will demonstrate gang members, their activities and mentality.

TIPS FOR A SAFE CAMPUS

Learn and follow all seminary security policies. These policies were created out of a concern for your welfare and consideration for the rights of others.

When walking or jogging:

- Go with someone.
- Stay away from isolated areas.
- Try and stay near street lights.
- Hold your purse or briefcase tightly, close to your body
- A front pocket is safer for a wallet than a back one.

If you're being followed:

- Cross the street or change directions.
- Keep looking back so the person knows you can't be surprised.
- Go to a well lighted area. Enter a store, house or apartment, classroom, or library - anywhere there are people.
- Notice and remember as much as possible about the person so you can give a good description later.

If you're held up:

- Don't resist. No amount of money is worth taking chances with your life.
- Notify the security or local police immediately.

Where you live:

- Keep your doors and windows locked day and night.
- Don't let strangers in.
- Don't leave a door unlocked for someone planning to come back later.

Protect personal and seminary property:

- Lock your door every time you leave.
- Don't store your purse in an unlocked desk drawer.
- Don't leave your belongings unattended in libraries, hallways, or classrooms.

If you are working late:

- Keep your office door locked.
- Lock all doors behind you when entering or exiting at night.
- Inform Campus Security. After 11:00 notify Post Security.

In a car:

- Keep doors locked while driving.
- Don't pick up hitchhikers.
- Check the back seat before getting into a car.

Protect your car:

- Always lock your car and take the keys.
- Lock valuables in the trunk.
- Park in well lighted areas.

Report suspicious activity and vandalism immediately.

INFORMATION ON SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Fuller Seminary is committed to maintaining an alcohol and drug-free environment, one conducive to the promotion of wellness and positive self-development of all members of its community. In keeping with this objective, the seminary will ensure that all of its campuses and workplaces are safe and free from the problems and risks associated with the unauthorized use and abuse of alcohol and the illegal use and abuse of drugs.

Standards of conduct:

Out of respect for our bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit, as good stewards of our relationships with one another, and in relation to our individual and communal fitness for ministry, the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of alcohol or illicit drugs by any member of the Fuller community on Fuller property is prohibited. While the use of alcohol by adults is lawful, alcohol use by adults is prohibited on the Fuller campuses, outside of the privacy of an individual's Fuller provided housing.

Facts about drug and alcohol abuse:

Drug abuse has spread to every level of society in the United States. All drugs are toxic or poisonous if abused. Health risks of drug abuse include, but are not limited to, sleep disorders, confusion, hallucinations, paranoia, depression, impotence, liver damage, cardiac irregularities, hepatitis, and neurological damage. Abuse of either alcohol or drugs during pregnancy increase the risk of birth defects, spontaneous abortion, and stillbirths.

Alcohol is a depressant. It depresses the central nervous system and can cause serious, irreversible physical damage. Excessive drinking damages the liver, resulting in cirrhosis. Chronic alcohol abuse also causes hypertension, cardiac irregularities, ulcers, pancreatitis, kidney disease, and cancer of the esophagus, liver, bladder, and lungs.

Available assistance:

The good news is that alcoholism and drug abuse and addiction are treatable. Generally, a recovering alcoholic or drug abuser may never safely drink or use drugs again, but can lead a normal, productive life as long as he or she maintains total abstinence. Confidential counseling and treatment programs in the Fuller Psychological Center may be available to Fuller students and employees. The costs of these programs are dependent upon the treatment necessary, with the individual's economic situation a recognized factor on a sliding payment scale. Students and employees should consult with their insurance carriers with individual questions regarding coverage of treatment.

Legal sanction:

Local, state, and federal laws establish a variety of penalties for the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of a controlled substance, which includes alcohol as well as illicit drugs. These legal sanctions, upon conviction, may range from the payment of a small fine and probation to imprisonment for up to one year or a $5,000 fine, or both. Federal laws have increased the penalties for the illegal distribution of drugs to include life imprisonment and fines in excess of $1,000,000.

Incidents on the Fuller campus or incidents involving members of the Fuller community may be reported to civil authorities for legal action.

Procedures:

A concern that any member of the community has failed to abide by this Community Standard on Substance Abuse should be reported promptly. Time limits for reporting are noted in the applicable procedures. Procedures for alleged violations of this community standard are available upon request from the Office of Student Affairs. For information about complaint resolution or to obtain a copy of the procedures, contact the Office of Student Affairs, 130 N. Oakland Avenue, Pasadena CA 91182 (Kreyssler Hall, second floor), email, or call 626-584-5433.

INFORMATION ON SEXUAL ASSAULT/HARASSMENT OFFENSES POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

SEXUAL ASSAULT/HARASSMENT OFFENSES

In accordance with the "Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act" and the Higher Educational Amendments of 1998, colleges and universities are required to report statistics on crime and policies regarding campus security. In addition, the Department of Education now requires further specification regarding forcible and nonforcible sexual offenses as defined in the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook (National Incident-Based Reporting System Edition). Copies of these documents are on file in the Campus Security Office and in the Office of Human Resources. The following mandated definitions are applicable:

1) Forcible Rape is the carnal knowledge of a person, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of her/his temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity (or because of her/his youth).

2) Statutory Rape is nonforcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent. (NOTE: If force was used or threatened, the offense should be classified as Forcible Rape, not Statutory Rape.)

3) A Forcible Sexual Offense is "any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent," and includes forcible rape, forcible sodomy, sexual assault with an object, and forcible fondling.

4) A Nonforcible Sexual Offense is an act of "unlawful, nonforcible sexual intercourse," and includes incest and statutory rape.

Depending upon the circumstances, acquaintance rape could be included as either a forcible or nonforcible sexual offense.

Under seminary policy, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature up to and including sexual assault constitute sexual harassment when:

1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a condition of instruction, employment, or participation in other seminary activity;

2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for evaluation in making any academic or personnel decision affecting that individual; or

3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's performance or participation in instructional, employment-related, or other seminary activity; or

4) such conduct has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive academic or work environment from the standpoint of a reasonable person of the same sex as the individual affected.

Both men and women may be victims of sexual harassment. One person may be sexually harassing another person and not be aware of it. In determining whether the alleged conduct constitutes sexual harassment, consideration shall be given to the record as a whole and to the totality of the circumstances, including the context in which the alleged conduct occurred.

RESPONSES TO INCIDENTS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT/SEXUAL HARASSMENT

To promote awareness of the incidence of sex offenses and to guide responses if a sex offense does occur, the seminary provides materials and administrative responses through the departments of Student Life and Human Resources.

During orientation programs, incoming students, faculty, and staff are provided with the locations of information, including the Student Handbook, Faculty Handbook, and Human Resources Policy Manual, which describe seminary policies and procedures for dealing with reports of sexual assault and harassment. These procedures are presented in the seminary's Sexual Harassment Policy and Procedures which identify sexual assault as a specific kind of sexual harassment behavior that is subject to disciplinary action. In addition, the seminary's community standard regarding Respect for Persons and Property identifies all forms of physical violence as unacceptable behaviors, which are subject to disciplinary action.

A designated individual may provide information about applicable seminary policies and procedures, outline available options for addressing a concern or complaint, and, if requested, attempt to resolve the matter through informal mediation. Designated individuals include:

Assistant Vice President for Finance

Student Development Director

Dean of each school or the dean's designee

These individuals may be contacted in their offices on campus.

Both informal and formal complaint resolution processes are available to students, faculty, administrators, and staff whenever there is an allegation of sexual assault and/or harassment. A trained representative of the seminary would routinely advise a victim of actions and resources available to alleviate any discomfort or harm, including direction and/or necessary assistance in notifying local law enforcement officials if requested by a victim.

In an emergency in which the health or well-being of a member of the seminary community is threatened, the person so threatened, a designated individual, a supervisor, or other knowledgeable person, should promptly inform the provost. The provost is authorized to take such action as is necessary and appropriate to ensure the well-being of the seminary community. Such action may include changes in a victim's academic and living conditions after the alleged sex offense and notice of the options for change, if changes are requested by the victim and are reasonably available.

In addition, on request of a victim, the designated individual can provide a list of counseling options to a victim. Confidential counseling and treatment programs offered through the School of Psychology are available to Fuller students and employees at the individual's expense. The designated individual may also suggest, on request of a victim, alternate counseling and/or pastoral resources outside the seminary.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The seminary values responsible speech and seeks to create and maintain a redemptive environment. Therefore, in the informal and formal complaint resolution procedures, every reasonable effort is made to protect the privacy of all parties. Disclosure will be made only to those who need to know in order to carry out assigned seminary responsibilities, as determined in the sole discretion of the designated individual or designated administrator, and otherwise, only in accordance with applicable state and federal laws.

COMPLETE POLICY STATEMENTS

The seminary's community standards on Sexual Harassment and Respect for People and Property and their enforcement procedures are fully presented on the seminary's website: <http://www.fuller.edu/about-fuller/mission-and-history/community-standards.aspx>, in the Human Resources Policy Manual, and the Faculty Handbook.
