The generous support of many donors, Fuller Theological Seminary is pleased to offer you the opportunity to apply for the SIS PhD, DMiss, and ThM student scholarships listed below.

There are two types of scholarships available to students:

- Scholarships which require a written essay (Section 1).
- Scholarships which require a written essay and School of Intercultural Studies faculty recommendation (Section 2).

INSTRUCTIONS: Read the description for each scholarship. If you meet the specific criteria for a particular scholarship and you want to apply for it, check the box next to its description. After you select a scholarship that requires an essay or one that requires an essay and faculty recommendation, follow the additional directions found in Sections 1 and 2 on how to meet these requirements. A completed 2015-2016 Fuller Financial Aid Application is also required. U.S. citizens and permanent residents must also complete the FAFSA.

All materials for all scholarships must be received by 5 P.M. Friday, March 6, 2015. Late submissions will not be considered. Only recipients will be notified of their selection. Recipients will be required to provide a thank-you to the scholarship donor before they can receive their scholarship money. Recipients may be contacted by the Seminary’s Development and Public Relations departments for fundraising and publicity purposes.

Section 1 - Scholarships which require a written essay

The scholarships in Section 1 require a written essay.

Instructions:

1. Read the description for each scholarship on Pages 1 and 2. If you want to apply for a specific scholarship, check the box next to its description. Only select the scholarships for which you are particularly well qualified.
2. Write one essay, even if you are applying for multiple scholarships in this section. If you are applying for scholarships in Section 1 AND Section 2, you will need to write a total of two essays: one for your Section 1 choices and one for your Section 2 choices.
3. Your essay must be typed and no longer than one page. Handwritten essays are not acceptable.
4. In your essay, describe how you meet the criteria for each of the scholarships for which you are applying. Although many of the criteria are similar, some scholarships contain specific requirements that you must address. For example, the Lewis K. Glanville Memorial Scholarship asks for applicants to demonstrate involvement with issues related to justice. If you wish to apply for this scholarship you must explicitly state how you have been involved with issues related to justice somewhere in your essay.
5. Complete the name and student ID section on page 1.
6. Separate pages 1 and 2 from pages 3 and 4 of this packet.
7. Staple pages 1 and 2 and your Section 1 essay together.
8. Submit pages 1 and 2 and attached essay for Section 1 scholarships by 5 P.M. Friday, March 6, 2015 to:

   Fuller Theological Seminary
   135 N. Oakland Avenue
   Pasadena, CA 91182
